

FOURTH YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., THURSDAY, JULY 18, 1895.

ONE CENT.

LARGEST IN THE CITY.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising notice for less than a certain price. A newspaper is a legitimate business concern. Its columns are its stock in trade, and advertisements should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

The Continued Calls

Upon THE REGISTER for free notices have become so burdensome that we are forced to publish the following terms:

For Notices of Suppers, excursions, fairs, or other public entertainments where a fee is charged, and for obituary notices, read at the request of the family, THE REGISTER will charge FIVE CENTS A LINE, and hereafter this will be the invariable rate. This, however,

Does Not Include

notices of Lodge meetings or Church services, which must not exceed ten lines.

Avoidance of Disputes.

Misunderstandings are unpleasant. The rate for Business Local in THE REGISTER is $4.00 a line for the first insertion and 5 cents a line for subsequent insertions. A customer orders a five-line local inserted in the paper. "I'll tell you when to take it out," he says to the bookkeeper. "But he forgets about it. The bookkeeper, however, for two months—six times—the bill is $12.00. When he finds it out there is a "kick" and a controversy, followed probably by an angry feeling. Let us obviate this trouble, no "left-handed" notices will be accepted hereafter. Let us have a definite agreement at the outset and the matter will be pleasant to all.

All matter for publication must be handed in before 9 o'clock in the morning of each day.

If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going to visit, please drop us a note in that effect.

SHORT STOPS.

Everybody was on the anxious seat last night until THE LADENERS received and spread the good news.

And it was "KID" Keenan who threw the Knoxville team. Please tell us what Heiman will do for them?

Johnnie Heleman accompanied the boys South, but we neglected to say so in yesterday's paper. We hope he will play better than ever on account of it.

Last night after the telegram had been read announcing the victory of the Mayville lads, some rooster wanted to know how the Knoxville team got those five runs.

The Mayville Ball Club defeated the Senators of Washington, D. C. on last Monday by a score of 12 to 3. Now, let Mayville tackle Boston and win, and her cup of joy will be full.—Ripley Bee.

Our cup is running over. Brother, for we know any club the Reds can down the Locals can do the same.

The Woman's Prayer Service will be held in the Central Presbyterian Church on Friday afternoon, July 19th, at 4 o'clock.

Mrs. Eli High died at her home on Eagle Creek, just below town, on the opposite side of the river, Sunday morning of consumption.

Professor W. W. Milam, with a string of the finest, left yesterday afternoon for Canada, where he will pull down several good races. Claude Newell accompanied him.

Wyandotte Tribe No. 3, I. O. R. M., will meet at K. P. Hall at 7:30 this evening. Send in your petition and $4 if you want to join a first-class fraternal and beneficial Order.

A. G. Truitt of Quincy, Lewis county has a turkey gobble that has developed the setting propensities of a hen. He fought a chicken off her nest and took charge. Mr. Truitt and his family recently fought him off, but he invariably returned. Finally they decided to put a "setting" of eggs under him and the gobble has been for two weeks past serenely awaiting results, the same as a faithful hen.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Maggie S. Ott was largely attended yesterday afternoon. The religious services were conducted by the Rev. D. P. Holt of the M. E. Church, and the ritualistic ceremonies of the Daughters of Rebekah were performed at the grave by the members of that Order. The floral tributes were numerous, and an exceptionally fine place was offered by the Sisterhood of which Mrs. Ott had been such a devoted member.

KENTUCKY REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.
We are opposed to the free and unlimited export of silver, believing that it would cause a financial crisis. We believe in a sound currency and in the use of both gold and silver for coinage, provided always that a dollar in coin is made precisely as valuable as a dollar in the other.
We favor a tariff so regulated as to protect the interests of all classes of our citizens upon articles that may be necessarily manufactured or produced in this country, thus insuring good wages to the laborer and a home market to the producer; and in connection with this we favor the re-establishment of the doctrine of reciprocity.
We believe that such a system will defray every Government expense, gradually liquidate all indebtedness, restore public confidence and relieve the poor from the undue excitement now prevailing concerning the currency. In view of the past financial history of the Democratic party, its devotion to the old state bank system and wild cat tendencies, we affirm that the Republican party can be more safely trusted to regulate the financial system of the Nation.
We favor an American policy which will protect American and American interests in every part of the world at all hazards and will sympathize with struggling Republics rather than ignominious monarchies.

Uncle Sam's Shortage.
The deficit in the National Treasury for the first sixteen days of the present fiscal year is $12,522,773 99.
Not many years have elapsed since steel rails in this country cost $50 per ton under a Protective duty of over $30 per ton. The Trustees of the Cincinnati Southern Railroad paid as high as $50 for steel rails.
There were not half a dozen manufacturers in the United States, and nine-tenths of all the rails used were imported, but Protection inspired capitalists, establishments were multiplied, the ore dug out of our mountains was utilized, and now $20 to $24 per ton is the price of home-made steel rails, and our establishments have become comparatively independent of Protection. Thus an infant industry has grown within the lifetime of a single generation to the stature of robust and progressive manhood.
So it is coming to be with tin plate, and so it will be with beet sugar. This beneficial results of the principles of Protection are made manifest, until now the cry is not near so much for Protection as it is for a Tariff sufficient to meet the necessary expenditures of the Government.
Perhaps our Democratic opponents in Headache.

This distressing malady is caused by a run-down state of the health, and is often a forerunner of other and more dangerous diseases.
Brown's Iron Bitters
cures headache by removing the cause of it; and this is the way it does it.
It purifies and enriches the blood, quickens the action of the kidneys, the liver and the bowels, and gently and pleasantly stimulates the digestive organs, and in fact thoroughly renovates and tones up the whole system—and you have no more headache. And besides it is pleasant to take, and will not stain the teeth nor cause constipation.
Is this not better than dosing yourself with disagreeable and dangerous drugs, which at the best can do no lasting good?
They're deceived by imitations. See the crossed red lines on the wrapper.
The all-around it should be ready by every household. Free from alcohol and drugs. BROWN CHEMICAL CO., BALTIMORE, MD.

The Presidential campaign of 1896 will try to side-track the Tariff question, says The Cincinnati Commercial Gazette, but they will find that, in the light of experience, a mighty difficult undertaking.
The people of this country have learned a great deal since 1890, and especially since the disastrous election of CLEVELAND and a Democratic Congress in 1892.
No, the Tariff will continue at the front. Protection, not Prohibition, is a principle that will continue to live, and it will be a feature, not only in the Fifty-fourth Congress, but in the Fifty-fifth and all subsequent Congresses, modified only as circumstances favorable to such changes may be developed by experience. In every case within fifty years Free-trade practices and theories even have proved disastrous, and in the past it must be in the future.

The tin plate industry is proving an illustration in this line which intelligent citizens are not likely to misread, and the same is likely to be brought about by the growth of sugar beets and the manufacture of beet sugar.

THIRD TERM.

Secretary Lamont Home From His Western Trip.

He Does Not Deny That His Trip Was in the Interest

Of a Third Term for President Cleveland.
—He Could Not Be Induced to Declare That He Was Not Interested in Sounding Western Sentiment.

WASHINGTON, July 18.—Dan Lamont is home again from his trip through the west. He has no report to make in regard to the results of his trip from an army standpoint. That was hardly to be expected in view of the fact that Hon. Schofield has also been engaged in an inspection of the army posts, and that it was understood in the beginning that Lamont's journey was purely an ornamental affair from a military point of view. Of more significance is the fact that he refrains from denying the report that his journey west was in the interest of a third term for President Cleveland. He was asked if he had anything to say on this question, and his reply was evasive.
He could not be induced to declare either that he was not engaged in sounding western sentiments or that Mr. Cleveland was not, in fact, a candidate for another term.
The secretary of war is not so eager as some of the president's supervisors in asserting that Mr. Mc-Cleveland has no designs upon another term in the white house. He is too familiar with the president's plans to expose himself to the charge of willful deception, and he is confident enough of his hold upon the president's confidence to understand that any such an unnecessary exhibition would not tend to raise him in Mr. Cleveland's esteem. Nothing need be expected from either Mr. Lamont or the president with regard to a third term until the secretary of war has had an opportunity to report at Gray Gables, and until the chiefs in the scheme for a third term have talked over possibilities and come to a conclusion whether it would be worth while to brave treason in the endeavor for Mr. Cleveland's further continuance in office.

SITUATION SERIOUS.
WASHINGTON, July 18.—Secretary of War, William Wood, received a telegram from Gov. A. W. Richards, of Wyoming, dated July 15: "Have just received a telegram dated Maryland, Wyoming, stating that nine Indians were arrested, one killed and others escaping. Many Indians are reported breaching lives and property." Gov.
Richards states that he has received other reports by mail reporting the situation as serious. The Indians are harassing from Fort Hall, Idaho, resented for illegal and wanton killing of game. Gov. Richards asks if the secretary can take immediate action for the protection of the settlers.

Chinese Unlawfully Entering the United States.
DETROIT, Mich., July 18.—United States officers last night arrested Lee Sun, Lee Choo, Lee Hoo, and Lee Ping, who were bound for Chicago in a Wagner sleeping car on the Michigan Central, just after they crossed from Windsor. They were evidently under the guidance of Herbert Johnson, a white man. The officers have been suspicious that many Chinese were crossing over unlawfully. They were found locked in the drawing room of the sleeping car, while the sleeping car employees tried to keep the officers from entering.

To Suppress Horse Stealing.
PENRY, O. T. July 18.—One hundred citizens of Pottawatomie county, Oklahoma, have called for citizens of every portion of the county to meet and form a law and order league to suppress horse stealing and other thieving in the county and twenty leagues were organized, consisting of five hundred men. One hundred horses have been stolen in the county in one night.
Some months ago thirty leading men of the county were arrested and convicted of being leaders of an organized band of thieves of Oklahoma and Indian Territories.
He Expected to Swing for His Crime.
PHILADELPHIA, July 18.—H. H.
Holmes, alias Herman Mudgett, has virtually confessed to the murder of the two Pitzel children, whose bodies were found in the cellar of a Toronto house. It was learned at the office of the district attorney during a two hours interview that Holmes said: "I suppose I'll swing for this." This is the only remark dropped from Holmes' lips which in any way would tend to crim-inate him, and the district attorney takes this as a practical admission of Holmes' guilt.

MOONSHINERS CAUGHT.

Raid and Desperate Resistance in Upper Pike County, Ky.

SHEROFT, Ky., July 18.—United States Marshals Bevin, Bartley, Wilkinson and Reed made a raid on the moonshiners of Beef Hills and Elk Horn creeks, in upper Pike county, and succeeded in capturing three of the violators, John Moore, Elijah Wright, a relative of the noted mountain fighter and detective, John Wright, and James Ciesco, a terror to the mountains of Kentucky and Virginia, who, with his associate, a man named Prater, helped to drive the "revenues" from the mountains two weeks ago, mortally wounding Calvin Crenshaw, known as "Bad Calv." Crenshaw died last week from the wound. Prater is now by himself, and the only "shiner" on the two creeks.
He will probably skip across the line into Virginia, his former home. Ciesco was killed a large number of men in Kentucky and Virginia—in fact, the exact number is not known. There is a reward in both these states for him now.

ANGERED.
A Mad Bull Chases the Red Light On a Bicycle.
LANSCHTERS, Ky., July 17.—While Joseph Wheeler was returning from Stanford University, a mad bull, the red lantern on the wheel attracted the attention of a maddened bull in the road near the road. The bull became frantic, and breaking through the fence, started in pursuit of his supposed enemy. The chase was a wild one, and only ended on the public square. The citizens of the town were thrown into consternation by the appearance of the bellowing animal, and with difficulty he was stopped. Mr.
Wheeler, in his fright, let his wheel get away from him and ran into the corner confectionery, totally demolishing his machine and hurting himself very badly.

Frankfort Politics.
FRANKFORT, Ky., July 18.—A sensation in politics here was created here Wednesday when W. J. Lewis and Charles Julian, both Blackburn supporters in the legislative race, withdrew and Col. E. H. Taylor was announced as an out and out Blackburn candidate against James A. Violett, a sound money man, who has been burned here Tuesday and in conference with his friends, and it is said urged the withdrawal of one of the two Blackburn men in order to thus consolidate the strength of Senator Blackburn.

Breach of Promise Case Settled.
DANVILLE, Ky., July 18.—The breach of promise suit brought by W. C. Silvers, of Garrard county, against Miss Kate West, of Marlborough, and made famous by Judge Ellis' remarking that it would be tried before a jury of women, has been declared off. The plaintiff came to this and withdrew his suit. Chas.
C. Fox, to withdraw the suit. He gave no reason for his sudden change of purpose. Hon. W. O. Bradley was to be represented the defendant in the case.

WEEKLY PUBLIC LEDGER.

Did U?
Did you ever think that relatives or friends who have moved to distant places—gone West, perhaps, to grow up with the country—are always glad to hear from their "Old Kentucky Home"? And did it ever occur to you that single copy of THE MAYSVILLE REPUBLICAN the weekly edition of The Public Ledger—contains more home news than you could en-brace in a hundred ordinary letters? And did it ever strike you that you can send the paper to your relatives and friends for a whole year at less cost than you can write a letter each week? Besides, don't you think a year's sub-

Brave Cincinnati Firemen Killed and Mangled.

Capt. Healey and Pipeman Tom Wisby Taken Out Dead.

A Large Room Suddenly Injured, Some of Whom May Die—Several Buildings Burned to the Ground—The Financial Loss a Quarter of a Million.

CINCINNATI, July 18.—A homeless, irresponsible vagabond, dirty, unkempt and probably hungry, dropped a lighted match through a grating to a basement on Water street Wednesday afternoon, with the same total unconsciousness of results that animated the cow that kicked over the lamp in Chicago.

The fire started at 1:45 p. m. in the basement of J. W. Healey, a coal feed warehouse, at 11 and 13 Water street, being located just east of the approach to the Suspension bridge. It rapidly did its worst, so that persons on the second floor barely escaped by jumping. The fire did not confine itself to the one building, but ran rapidly rearward, attacking the building on Front street between the Morris establishment, at Front and Main, and the bridge approach.

In a very short space of time after the first alarm came the ten-bell, a total of thirteen engines responding. The alarm came from 100 feet, the resulting fatalities gave a text for gossip.

In the Water street building the combustion seemed perfect. The roof burned off and severely any smoke arose, great forced flames demonstrating that the fire was feeding upon the most inflammable of materials.

Walls began to fall before 2:30 o'clock. A piece dropped out of the top of the front of the Water street building. A quarter of an hour later a second came a great four-story section, reaching clear across the street, and covering with debris the space fully vacated by three details of firemen.

Bricks flew a hundred feet and did some damage. Spectators who had been bruised and many were trampled under foot when the wild rush for safety came.

Wall after wall fell, the one that brought death with it not being the last. The buildings are practically destroyed.

Yet, despite the danger, the firemen did not hesitate, but pushed into the very heart of the fire. They climbed on ladders and fought when enveloped in smoke and blisters, they stood on roofs with fiery furnaces on both sides and the rays of the sun beating down on their heads, they stood in narrow streets, heavily laden with iron walls, and not one of them faltered.

The pain-racked, cruelly wounded bodies of those who tossed in agony through the hot night and the mutilated corpses of two brave fellows testified, but with no exception, that not any pen can write the devotion to duty and the inherent bravery of the Queen City firemen.

These men met death and injury by plunging into a building that was notoriously unsafe, forgetful of all but the work before them, unmindful of the danger that was about to be crushed down by a wall that was swaying and tottering before they were near it. It is a question of the saving of property, demanded such a sacrifice.

Following is a list of the dead and injured: Dead—Capt. W. H. Healey, Company 29; Pipeman Tom Wisby, Company 8.

The injured: Prof. Louis Hark, skull fractured; Ben Toppen, fractured right arm and scalp wounds; Ed Newman, several ribs broken and scalp wounds; Michael McNally, scalp wounds and left leg broken; William Thompson, spine injured and scalp wound; H. M. Anthony, concussion of brain and internal injuries; Almy, who was injured by heat and smoke; Bart Panninger, internal injuries; Charles McEale, hit on the face with a piece of masonry; Wm. McEale, head and body bruised; John Mullen, arm broken; Walter Hanson, scalp wounds; Peter Purcell, head and body bruised; James Hanks, head and body bruised; Bradford, overcome by smoke; Jack Patton, spine injured; Lieut. Cavanaugh, overcome by heat; Lieut. Boggs.

The financial loss will aggregate fully $250,000, partially insured.

The Louisville Club Leaves Pfeffer. Louisville, Ky., July 18.—The New York club has purchased the rights of Fred Pfeffer from the Louisville club, and he will play here Thursday with the former. The price is understood to be $100,000. Pfeffer has been pending for some time and was delayed by the protests of Manager Hanlon, of Baltimore, and Manager Harris, of Brooklyn. After Pfeffer had consented to the transfer they finally yielded and the deal was closed Wednesday.

Crushed Her Head. SHELBYVILLE, Ind., July 18.—While working with a derrier Wednesday morning, Carl Garrison had his right hand crushed by being caught in the cog. Jerry Jackson was showing several bystanders how the accident occurred and had his hand crushed in exactly the same manner.

Killed and Injured in a Freight Wreck. MONROEVILLE, Pa., July 18.—A Santa Fe freight train southbound from Denver to Colorado Springs fell through a bridge last night, and the result was a fatal morning, killing two, fatally injuring three and seriously injuring fifteen others.

Killed by an Electric Wire. CINCINNATI, July 18.—The hanging of an electric wire on Sherman avenue, Evanston, Wednesday night, one man was killed and several other persons were seriously injured.

The Silver Service Presented to the War Vessel

From the City of Cincinnati, by Mayor John A. Caldwell.

All Decks Were Given An Extra Pull for the Ocean—The Mayor Presented Address—Admiral Bunge Accepted the Present—Speech Making.

New York, July 18.—About 10 o'clock Wednesday morning the tug Marked for the Ocean—The Mayor Presented Address—Admiral Bunge Accepted the Present—Speech Making.

The tug immediately steamed back to the navy yard. The Cincinnatians were met at the dock by Acting Rear Admiral Bunge and Capt. Henry Glass. The guests were escorted to the deck of the Cincinnati, and were received by the officers and crew.
